To the University Community

Universidad Iberoamericana is fully committed to provide a safety and quiet environment to every community member. We continually review the policies addressed to promote an environment free of alcohol and drugs, of violence, harassment and sexual abuse. These policies are based on the moral and Christian values conducting our university work. This report includes information on current services, policies and security programs. It includes prevention measures taken by the University for the safety of the university community and measures to be taken for their protection. Our purpose will be only achieved through active participation of each student and teachers and administrative staff.

I invite you to read the information described below and to give us your recommendations. We appreciate your advice on any situation or incident attempting against faithful compliance of such policies. I count on the support of each of you to move forward with our educational project and to enjoy an institutional environment of healthy coexistence and solidarity.

Dr. Julio Amado Castaños Guzman
Rector
INTRODUCTION

The Mission of the Security Department in UNIBE is to promote the safety of people who is part of such university community and the ones visiting our campus. The Security Department staff has the commitment of providing a safety environment protecting lives and properties. This office is responsible for investigating every kind of incident, to watch compliance of institutional regulations and local laws and identify and eliminate risks and opportunities for crimes, to set prevention programs together with the Dean of Students Office and the General Services Department addressed to the university community. In order to achieve its mission, the Security Office requests support from all members of the university community. That is why every university community member who is a victim of any crime or who is a witness thereof is encouraged to immediately notify the designated departments. The institution benefits as a whole when security concerns all of us.

SECURITY SERVICES

Security Department
The University provides security services within the campus through the Security Department (body of security officers) composed of a Manager, Security Supervisors and guards from a security agency hired for such purposes. The Security Department staff, together with the institutional units to comply with the security policies (Office of the Dean and General Services), provides the following services, among others:

- Watches and protect premises 24/7.
- Supervises the access control.
- Encourages students, employees and other university community members to be responsible for their security.
- Provides orientation on security measures and prevention of crimes or other emergencies in coordination with the Office of the Dean.

Office Location: Basement of the Cafeteria/Gym Building, main gate at Av. Francia.

Authority of the security personnel to investigate and report to the National Police in order to enforce the institutional security policies:

- The security personnel can conduct civil detentions when life and security of people and property are in danger and crimes are committed in front of them. Also, it is responsible to watch over compliance of institutional security policies, as well as the laws and regulations of the country related to security.
- The Security Office work closely and in harmony with the national police force.

Emergency phone numbers:

- Several public telephones are installed in the facilities and buildings to dial 911 without using coins.
SECURITY POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Policy on Access to the premises

The University keeps the following policy for the appropriate access to the premises.

During working hours:

- The access to the premises and its facilities during working hours and in special activities to: UNIBE students and another Educational Centers, employed teachers and employees (no-teachers), members of Graduate Circle, authorized visitors and other authorized individuals.
- The person whose motor vehicle has access can enter the premises during working days and hours wherein activities are being carried out within the institution.
- The motor vehicles without access can get in once the purpose of the visit is verified and the driver and vehicle information recorded.

Outside working hours and official activities:

- Entrance to premises will not be allowed unless specifically to the use of Physical Recreation. Security Supervisor will exercise its discretion to allow the entrance to the premises outside working hours or official activities to employees, students and visitors.

Use of Alcoholic Beverages and Drugs Policy

This policy regulates and set forth disciplinary measures upon the use and abuse of alcoholic beverages and drugs within the premises.

- The Institution undertakes the following commitment:
  - To request from students, faculty and employees to stay free of drug and alcohol abuse.
  - To control the use of alcoholic beverages in their community.

- For such purposes University forbids the following
o Manufacture, possession, consumption, sale, and distribution of drugs in their premises and in official activities outside thereof.
o Consumption of alcohol beverages during working hours and classes’ periods.
o Abuse of alcoholic beverages within the University at any moment.
o Consumption of alcoholic beverages in official activities of the University shall be previously approved by the authorities and to comply with the consumption policy responsible for alcohol.

- A document on the Policy of Universidad UNIBE upon the Use and Abuse of Alcoholic Beverages and Drugs will be available at:

  o Rector’s Office
  o Academic Vice-Rectory
  o Administrative Vice-Rectory
  o Dean of Students Office
  o Human and Administrative Management
  o Student Lounge
  o PIU

Institutional disciplinary measures and provisions and legal penalties are included in the policy on Use and Abuse of Alcoholic Beverages and other Drugs. It is available in the Dean of Students Affairs Office.

Policy on gun possession and carrying (See academic regulation, Title 5, Art. 15 related to Disciplinary Sanctions)

- The University prohibits possession and carrying of any type of gun, both inside the Institution and in activities fostered by it outside the premises.
- This provision does not apply to agents of public order, as policemen, private security agents and others, in official duties inside the premises.

Policy and rules to prohibit and prevent sexual harassment, violence and sexual assault or offences. (See academic regulation, Title 5, Art. 15 related to Disciplinary Sanctions)

In order to keep a study environment and safety work and free of fears, Universidad Iberoamericana prohibits and will not tolerate any type of conduct or behavior constituting or to be interpreted as sexual harassment, hounding, violence or sexual assault or offence. Therefore, policies and preventive and prohibition rules have been set forth for these purposes.

- These policies and rules apply to:

  o The whole university community
• Every individual while in or outside the premises in official activities of the University.

• Policies forbid:

  o Every manifestation of harassment, violence, hounding, and sexual aggression.
  o The following measures are set forth:
    o Preventive
    o Disciplinary
    o Intervention to affected individuals

Information on these policies is available in:

  o Rector’s Office
  o Academic Vice-Rectory
  o Administrative Vice-Rectory
  o Dean of Students Office
  o Security Department
  o Student Information Point (PIU)

Procedure to inform acts constituting sexual harassment, violence or aggression or sexual offence:

Every victim or any other person observing any act involving or conducing to violation or sexual offence shall be informed promptly to the Dean of Students Office, the Security Department or any other authority of the Institution such as, Associate Deans, Director of Athletic and Cultural Development, office Directors, Department Directors and academic Counselors. They will take necessary steps to channel such complaint and provide aid to victims. Every investigation of sexual assault or offence shall be performed assuring the victim’s confidentiality. Security personnel shall instruct the victim about the importance of preserving the evidence that could be used to file criminal charges.

Incidents inside the Premises

If the incident takes place inside the premises or surrounding areas, such incident shall be notified by the victim of aggression to the Dean of Students Office or the Security Department, where a duly skilled staff will initiate the investigation. Universidad Iberoamericana assures absolute confidentiality in the investigative process. The action of informing the Dean’s Office or the Security Department do not force the student to move forward with other courses of action (e.g. to make a statement at the National Police or any other instance). Students who are victims of sexual attacks shall be oriented regarding their options to obtain injunctive relief. The final decision upon the action to be taken in its case shall be the responsibility of the student or employee. As far as it does not interfere with legal obligations of the University, the decision of the victim as to further the investigation and file complaints, lawsuits, etc. will be respected.
In the event the reports are performed after regular administrative schedule (7:00pm), the defendant can go to the Student Information Point (PIU) where a report will be recorded and addressed to the Dean of Students Office early next day.

Incidents outside the Premises

If the incident takes place outside the University, the student or employee shall inform the closest Police Station. Incidents taking place in the surroundings of the University shall be informed to the Police Headquarters and directly to the Sexual Offences unit. (This includes classes taught at Clinical Rotation)

Any incident should be reported either to the Dean’s Office, Security Department or Student Information Point by dialing the extensions 1154, 1156 and 1009.

In the event of emergencies: If you call from a public telephone sited inside the campus, please dial 911. No coins needed.

The Student Council unit of the Dean of Students Office provides counseling and psychological support to the victims upon request.

The University will take measures under its control to make academic arrangements to students victims of violation or sexual assault.

Both the plaintiff and the defendant of the sexual assault will have the same opportunity of being accompanied by an advisor or counselor of his/her choice as an observer during the disciplinary process. Both, the plaintiff and the defendant, shall be notified upon the result of the institutional disciplinary process, including the final decision and any sanction against the defendant in the event of a sexual assault.

In sexual assault cases disciplinary measures will be applied which, depending on the severity of the conduct could include the expulsion of the student or teachers or employees other than teachers. The disciplinary procedure thereto is set forth in the Students’ Regulations. The University reserves the right to apply disciplinary measures against any student, or teacher or any other employee charged with a sexual assault or any other kind although the victim is not a member of the university community.

Prevention and Education Program

The Dean of Students Office coordinates programs on education and prevention of violation and sexual assaults. We encourage the whole university community to participate in these activities.

Procedures to report incidents or crimes
Every incident or crime, as well as the violation to Transit Regulation, criminal acts around the Institution, either by action or omission, or any emergency situation thereof, shall be immediately informed to the Dean of Students Office or any security authority within the campus. Reported crimes shall be included in the annual statistical report of crime incidence even if there is not a police complaint.

Crime victims and witnesses of any kind of crime incident are encouraged to notify incidents to the Dean of Students Office or any other security authority of the Institution either in person or by phone, such as Deans, Department Directors, School Directors, and academic advisers. If they want to remain anonymous they can do an open notification through suggestion boxes, which are distributed through the whole campus.

Location of security personnel:

- In any of the entrance gates of the University
- At the Small Square and common Areas
- At the Security Department
- When patrolling the Institution
- At the halls of the classrooms
- In any other place where required by institutional authority.

The Dean of Students Office is responsible for monitoring the following:

- To investigate the situation jointly with the Security Department
- To advise the victims, witnesses or individuals reporting on the situation regarding the action to be taken
- To record the incident

In the event the reported incident is a crime:

The Dean of Students Office together with the Security Supervisor shall notify the Monetary Robbery and Crimes Department if the situation so deserves it or to the Homicide and Sexual Offences Department to the National Police, depending on the situation so they undertake their responsibility.

Procedure in the event of violation to the Students’ Regulation:

Lawsuits must be registered in the Dean of Students Office where applicable investigations shall be addressed.

Procedure in the event of violation to the Code of Conduct or regulations related to the Teachers and Employees other than teachers:

Any violation to the Code of Conduct or regulations applicable to personnel, shall notify the Human Resources office where procedures set forth in the Employee Manual shall be followed, as well as other policies and institutional regulations.
Policy for the compilation and disclosure of crime incidence statistics

All emergency and incidence of crimes taking place in the campus shall be promptly reported to the Dean of Students Office. The personnel of this unit, together with the personnel designated by the Security Department will be responsible for moving to the concerning area to conduct the relevant investigation and take the applicable measures. This information is used by the Dean of Students Office to prepare the daily logbook and the annual report of crime incidence.

Statistics on the incidence of the following crimes inside the campus and surroundings will be reported to the public: homicide, violation (with or without violence), robbery, aggravated aggression, auto theft, malicious burning, arrests for violation of drugs, alcohol and gun laws.

Logbook of Daily Incidents

The Dean of Students Office held a logbook of daily incidents and it is open to be reviewed by the public according to amendments to the Jeanne Clery Act.

Notices of Information on Security

The Dean of Students Office distributes several notices on crime activity. Advices are included therein to prevent becoming a victim of a crime.

INFORMATION TO THE COMMUNITY

We believe the university community shall be informed through seminars, lectures 2 or 3 times per year to take preventative measures and to prevent becoming victims of crime activities. The Dean of Students Office promotes prompt notification of every crime incident and is committed to keep the university community informed on the incidents taking place inside the campus and surroundings.

For these purposes, advices on crime activity and advices to prevent becoming a victim of crime are distributed via email to students, professors and administrative personnel. If necessary, because of the nature of facts, advices will be distributed using loose-leaf papers.

Security Measures

- As a security measure to prevent crimes, 46 security cameras have been installed with an ongoing monitoring center that keeps a 30-day information record and backups thereof.
- Survey and maintenance of premises and buildings to eliminate crime activity risks.
- Control of entrances to the campus during and after working hours.
Orientation Programs

- The University offers, mandatory, a course for students (during the first semester), named Academic Orientation. In the first unit of the course “Knowing the University”, topics related to services from the Dean of Students Office, Security Department, information on the Campus Security Report and other institutional offices are covered herein.

- The Dean of Students Office coordinates orientation on security and prevention addressed to students.

Prevention

- Universities are not exempted from the criminal wave affecting us as a city. In our campus we have experienced certain type of criminal behavior. The most effective way to face this reality is taking preventative measures. Prevention is a responsibility of each member of this university community.

Measures to prevent criminal acts

- By accepting that your safety or personal property can be a target of any criminal and to take action to avoid it. The erroneous thought that crime will not touch you should be ruled out.
- Many criminal acts take place when we are negligent. Keep yourself oriented towards prevention and you will help reduce statistics of crime incidence.
- Keep yourself alerted and report any criminal act committed, intended or suspected to be committed. Get involved! It is everyone’s responsibility.
